Editing and revision 修改

Editing and revision should be a fun and creative process. Let us begin to explore all the possibilities.

1. If you see your word/character cover with [yellow] that means you need to choose another word/character.
2. If you see your word/character cover with [red] that means you need to delete this word/character.
3. If you see your word/character cover with this word that means you need to add a word/character to the sentence structure.
4. If you see your word/character cover with this word that means you need to put this word/character in a different position of the sentence structure.

Created by Dr. Shan-Lee Liu on April 12, 2015